

1W/700097(039)

Gaetano Pentassuglia (Ed.)

Ethno-Cultural Diversity and Human Rights

Challenges and Critiques

International Studies in Human Rights

BRILL | NIJHOFF

Contents

Preface VII

List of Contributors IX

Introduction: The Unpacking of Ethno-Cultural Diversity 1

Gaetano Pentassuglia

PART I

Ethno-Cultural Diversity and Collective Interests

1 Collective and Group-Specific: Can the Rights of Ethno-Cultural Minorities be Human Rights? 27

Peter Jones

2 Why Majority Rights Matter in the Context of Ethno-Cultural Diversity: The Interlinkage of Minority Rights, Indigenous Rights, and Majority Rights 59

Dwight Newman

3 The Liberal Democratic Deficit in Minority Representation: The Case of Spain 90

Lucía Payero-López and Ephraim Nimni

PART II

Ethno-Cultural Diversity and the International Legal System

4 Do Human Rights Have Anything to Say about Group Autonomy? 125

Gaetano Pentassuglia

5 International Law, Ethno-Cultural Diversity and Indigenous Peoples' Rights: A Postcolonial Approach 168

Felipe Gómez Isa

6 Indigenous Peoples and Intergenerational Equity as an Emerging Aspect of Ethno-Cultural Diversity in International Law 188

Malgosia Fitzmaurice

PART III

Ethno-Cultural Diversity, Migration, and Intersectionality

- 7 Ethno-Cultural Diversity and Human Rights in an Era of Mass Migration: Human Rights Issues in the Balance between Separate Provision and Integration for Settled Immigrant Communities 225
Tom Hadden
- 8 Minorities-within-Minorities Frameworks, Intersectionality and Human Rights: Overlapping Concerns or Ships Passing in the Night? 256
Dolores Morondo Taramundi

PART IV

Ethno-Cultural Diversity, Conflict, and Peacebuilding

- 9 Ethno-Cultural Diversity and Conflict: What Contribution Can Group Rights Make? 289
Chris Chapman
- 10 The Post-Conflict Security Dilemma and the Incorporation of Ethno-Cultural Diversity 337
Padraig McAuliffe
- General Index 371