

1N//700104(039)

THE INTERNATIONAL RESPONSIBILITY OF NATO AND
ITS PERSONNEL
DURING MILITARY OPERATIONS

DAVID NAUTA

BRILL | NIJHOFF

Contents

List of Figures VIII

List of Abbreviations IX

Table of Cases XIII

1	Introduction	1
1.1	The Concept of International Responsibility	4
1.2	Research Objective and Research Questions	6
1.2.1	Research Objective	6
1.2.2	Research Questions	10
1.3	Methodology and Materials	11
1.4	Object of Study	14
1.5	Outline of the Study	18
2	Three Illustrative Cases – Facts and Questions	20
2.1	Introduction	20
2.2	Case 1: Human Trafficking and Forced Prostitution in Kosovo	21
2.2.1	Background, Legal Framework of the Operation and Command Relationships	21
2.2.2	Status of Forces	24
2.2.3	Background of the Incident	25
2.2.4	Reaction by NATO, TCNs and /or Others	28
2.3	Case 2: Detention Operations in ISAF	30
2.3.1	Background, Legal Framework of the Operation and Command Relationships	30
2.3.2	Status of Forces	32
2.3.3	Background of the Incident	32
2.3.4	Reaction by NATO, TCNs and /or Others	36
2.4	Case 3: Kunduz Incident	40
2.4.1	Background, Legal Framework of the Operation and Command Relationships	40
2.4.2	Background of the Incident	41
2.4.3	Reaction by NATO, TCNs and /or Others	42
3	Overview of the Key Moments in the Development of NATO	49
3.1	Introduction	49
3.2	NATO from 1949 until 1989	50
3.3	NATO in the Period after the Cold War	54
3.4	Conclusions	63

- 4 Current Institutional Framework of NATO and NATO's Decision Making Process 65
- 4.1 Introduction 65
- 4.2 Current Institutional Framework of NATO 66
- 4.2.1 Introduction 66
- 4.2.2 The Civilian Structure 66
- 4.2.3 The Military Structure 69
- 4.3 The Relationship between NATO and Its Member States and the Decision-making Process 72
- 4.3.1 Consensus-rule 72
- 4.3.2 Planning Process of NATO Operations 75
- 4.3.3 The Command and Control Relationship 77
- 4.4 The Relationship between NATO and the UN 79
- 4.5 Conclusions 84
- 5 The International Legal Personality of NATO 86
- 5.1 Introduction 86
- 5.2 Indicia of the Existence of International Legal Personality 88
- 5.3 The International Legal Personality of NATO 93
- 5.4 Jurisprudence of International Courts and Tribunals 99
- 5.5 State Practice and Practice of International Organizations 101
- 5.6 Conclusions 104
- 6 Binding International Obligations Relevant to NATO's Operations 108
- 6.1 Introduction 108
- 6.2 International Obligations under NATO's Constitutional Documents 109
- 6.3 International Obligations under the UN Charter 113
- 6.4 International Obligations under Conventional Law 118
- 6.4.1 Conventional International Humanitarian Law and International Human Rights Law 118
- 6.4.2 Mission-SOFAs between NATO and the Host State 120
- 6.4.3 Memoranda of Understanding between NATO and TCNs 122
- 6.5 International Obligations under Customary Law 124
- 6.5.1 International Obligations under Customary IHL 125
- 6.5.2 International Obligations under Customary IHRL 136
- 6.6 Internal and External Rules of NATO 146
- 6.7 Conclusions 147

7 Attribution of Wrongful Acts to NATO	151
7.1 Introduction	151
7.2 Attribution of Wrongful Acts of Agents and Organs of NATO	152
7.3 Attribution of Conduct of Organs or Agents Placed at the Disposal of NATO	156
7.4 Multiple Attribution of Wrongful Conduct in NATO-led Operations	162
7.5 Conclusions	165
8 Conclusions and Recommendations	168
8.1 Introduction	168
8.2 Analysis of the Three Illustrative Cases	169
8.2.1 Human Trafficking and Forced Prostitution in Kosovo	169
8.2.2 Detention Operations in ISAF	171
8.2.3 Kunduz Incident	173
8.3 Final Conclusions	174
8.4 Recommendations	178
Appendix	181
Bibliography	187
Index	193