

1H//673596(039)

UNITED NATIONS
HUMAN RIGHTS
OFFICE OF THE HIGH COMMISSIONER

INTERNATIONAL BUDGET PARTNERSHIP
Open Budgets Transform Lives.

REALIZING HUMAN RIGHTS THROUGH GOVERNMENT BUDGETS

CONTENTS

FOREWORD	7
ACRONYMS AND ABBREVIATIONS	9
INTRODUCTION	11
I. A NORMATIVE FRAMEWORK FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE PUBLIC BUDGET	16
II. THE BUDGET PROCESS AND HUMAN RIGHTS.....	36
III. BUDGET FORMULATION	46
A. The fiscal envelope.....	50
1. Government revenue and a nation's gross domestic product	52
2. Running a budget deficit versus reducing the national debt.....	54
3. Budget ceilings.....	57
4. Official development assistance.....	58
B. Government revenue.....	65
1. Corporate and individual income taxes	69
2. Value-added taxes and sales taxes.....	71
3. Property taxes	74
4. User fees	75
5. Revenue from extractive industries.....	77
6. Inefficient revenue collection	80
7. Foregone revenue	83
8. Inaccuracies in revenue projection	85

C.	Budget allocations.....	88
1.	Non-discrimination in allocations	89
2.	Non-discrimination and geographical disparities	94
3.	Non-discrimination and formulas used in allocations	96
4.	Progressive realization and non-retrogression in allocations	98
5.	Appropriate, effective and adequate allocations for immediate realization.....	103
6.	Maximum available resources and prioritizing economic and social rights in the budget.....	107
IV.	BUDGET EXECUTION (EXPENDITURE).....	112
A.	Non-discrimination in expenditure.....	116
B.	Underexpenditure.....	119
C.	Trade-offs in expenditure between and within ministries.....	124
D.	Leakage.....	126
E.	Wasteful expenditure.....	127
V.	BUDGET OVERSIGHT AND EVALUATION.....	134
	ANNEXES.....	144
	ANNEX I Methodologies for monitoring and analysing budgets.....	145
	ANNEX II Other resources	154