

1W/732617K(039)

UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE ON TRADE AND DEVELOPMENT

UNCTAD

Forging a Path Beyond Borders:

The Global South

UNITED NATIONS

Contents

Foreword.....	v
Abbreviations.....	vi
Executive summary.....	ix
Introduction.....	1
Chapter 1 Tracing the rise and challenges of the global South.....	3
1.1 A tangible rise, but not for all.....	4
1.2 Persistent challenges of the most vulnerable countries.....	7
1.3 Counteracting pervasive commodity dependence.....	8
1.4 Mobilizing finance and debt management.....	10
Chapter 2 South meets South: On the path to 2030.....	13
2.1 Achieving the Goals through trade in the global South.....	14
2.2 South–South cooperation and Goal 7: Energy.....	16
Chapter 3 The power of regions and Southern investment.....	19
3.1 When regional is more than global.....	20
3.2 Southern investment flows.....	21
Chapter 4 Financing development from the South.....	25
4.1 Development banks and the 2030 Agenda.....	26
4.2 National development banks: Hidden gems of the South.....	28
4.3 The Belt and Road Initiative: An opportunity for supporting the 2030 Agenda.....	31
Chapter 5 Key areas for South–South cooperation.....	35
5.1 Strengthening regional and interregional integration from different fronts.....	36
5.2 Sustainable and inclusive trade: Removing trade and non-trade barriers in the South.....	38
5.3 Cooperating to build trade and productive capacities: Case studies.....	40
5.4 Sustainable South–South investment.....	41
5.5 Experiences of cooperation in the South: Sustainable fisheries and green exports.....	44
Chapter 6 UNCTAD success stories and “champions”.....	47
6.1 South–South cooperation on the ground.....	48
6.2 Cooperation for efficient and effective customs processes.....	48
6.3 Building least developed country capacities to expand fishery exports.....	49
6.4 UNCTAD support on the African Continental Free Trade Area negotiations.....	51
6.5 From raw materials to exporting finished leather products.....	52
6.6 Capacity-building to reform international investment agreements.....	54
Chapter 7 South–South cooperation in times of “Industry 4.0”.....	57
7.1 Digital industrialization for achieving the 2030 Agenda.....	58
7.2 Challenges of “Industry 4.0” for the global South.....	59
7.3 UNCTAD agenda for South–South cooperation and “Industry 4.0”.....	60
7.4 UNCTAD framework on South–South cooperation for technology and innovation.....	64
Annex Summary and non-binding recommendations.....	67
References.....	77

Figures

Figure 1	Annual growth rates of global trade and global production	.4
Figure 2	Developing economies: Foreign direct investment outflows	.5
Figure 3	Free market commodity price indices	.6
Figure 4	Access to electricity in the least developed countries, 2014	.16
Figure 5	Greenfield investments going to the global South	.22
Figure 6	Development finance: Turning South	.28
Figure 7	Select national development banks: Trends in domestic roles	.30
Figure 8	Use of short-term loan support from South–South regional arrangements	.37
Figure 9	Results and impact: Environmental, social and governance guidance campaign	.43

Boxes

Box 1	The long reach of commodity price fluctuations	.9
Box 2	A global scheme to promote and expand trade in the South	.15
Box 3	Alternatives to official development assistance: Looking South	.17
Box 4	Cooperation opportunities for transport and trade facilitation reforms	.33
Box 5	Cooperating across the South on non-tariff measures	.39
Box 6	What people are saying about the reporting guidance campaign	.44
Box 7	Online platforms and the trading market place	.58
Box 8	South–South cooperation for science, technology, innovation and the digital economy	.65

Table

Table	Some proposed features and principles for South–South cooperation	.64
-------	---	-----