1И//617506К(039)

Inclusive Education in Europe: Putting theory into practice

International Conference - 18 November 2013

Reflections from researchers

Inclusive Education in Europe

EUROPEAN AGENCY
for Special Needs and Inclusive Education

CONTENTS

PREAMBLE 7

EUROPEAN AGENCY: KEY MESSAGES AND OUTLOOK 8

THE EVOLUTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS: IMPLICATIONS FOR INCLUSIVE EDUCATION12

The evolution of human rights 13

What are human rights and what is the implication of the right to education? 14

Bibliography 22

AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE 25

Early detection and assessment 25

Key considerations related to detection and assessment 25
Barriers and enablers related to detection and assessment 26

Early intervention 26

Key considerations related to early intervention 26
Barriers and enablers related to early intervention 27

Support 27

Key considerations related to support 27
Barriers and enablers related to support 28

Towards an integrated cycle of early intervention 28

Interaction between key processes 28
The roles of research, policy and practice 29
Toward mutually beneficial policy, practice and research interactions 30
Recommendations 31

Closing comments 33

Bibliography 34

FUNDAMENTAL CHALLENGES AND DIMENSIONS OF INCLUSION IN SWEDEN AND EUROPE. HOW DOES INCLUSION BENEFIT ALL? 39

Preamble 39

Introduction 39

Tensions and challenges 40

Promising findings from the Agency's 'Organisation of Provision to Support Inclusive Education' project 41

Essunga and Flensburg show some ways forward 44
The need for a transformative change of culture 46
How does inclusion benefit all? 47
The development of a conceptual model – three fundamental dimensions and indicators of inclusion 48
A model for building a community of practice with leadership and support 49
Three inter-connected continua of the tri-focal support system 50
Conclusion 53
Bibliography 54
INITIAL TEACHER EDUCATION FOR INCLUSION. KEY MESSAGES AND CHALLENGES 57
Inclusive education: a necessary goal, an uncertain way 57
Teacher education: a key element in the progress towards more inclusive systems 59
The Profile of Inclusive Teachers 61
Some big challenges and debates on ITE 63
Bibliography 66
SUPPORT SYSTEMS AND FUNDING MECHANISMS 70
Introduction 70
Summary of presentation on this topic at the conference 72
Questions during the session on Support Systems and Funding Mechanisms 77
Inclusion is a key practice cited by high performing districts serving students with SEN 79
Conclusion 81
Bibliography 81
RELIABLE DATA 83
Introduction 83
Counting all: challenges in classifying and categorising children in order to provide education and other social services 84
Uses and limitations of student-level data on disability for educational purposes ... 85
The role of data systems in understanding and developing inclusive schools 88

Challenges in generating and using reliable data 90
Conclusion..... 91
Bibliography 92
ABOUT THE RESEARCHERS 94